

LEADERSHIP COACHING COMPANY OF THE YEAR

Agile Delta Consulting Limited

Agile Delta Consulting Limited is a professional services company that helps people, teams and organisations evolve, integrate and continuously improve. The consultancy works out of London's financial centre and empowers companies to navigate through constantly changing business environments. The handpicked team of specialist coaches and consultants bring decades of combined experience to the table, ensuring an individualised and hands-on approach for each client engagement. The diverse range of services include incisive workshops and skill-enhancing training sessions, as well as comprehensive strategies for organisational transformations.

The judges were particularly impressed by the real-world solutions offered by the experts at Agile Delta Consulting Limited, who meticulously tailor their services to meet each client's unique operational needs. By helping businesses to go beyond simply adapting to change, they have enabled clients to thrive in their ever-evolving fields – delivering evidence-led approaches that go above mere theory, offering actionable insights and tangible benefits. Customer satisfaction and sustainable, long-term value creation are the cornerstone philosophies at Agile Delta Consulting, equipping clients with the tools and knowledge they need to achieve lasting growth and success.
